

ADOPTION OF EMERGENCY AND TEMPORARY RULES TO IMPLEMENT THE AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT
(G.S. 150B-21.1B)

Emergency Rule expires on the earliest of the following dates:

- (1) The date specified in the rule.
- (2) The effective date of the temporary rule adopted to replace the emergency rule, if the Director of OERI approves the temporary rule.
- (3) The date the Director of OERI returns to an agency a temporary rule the agency adopted to replace the emergency rule; if the agency fails to satisfy the Director's objection.
- (4) Sixty days from the date the emergency rule was published in the North Carolina Register, unless the temporary rule adopted to replace the emergency rule has been submitted to the Codifier of Rules.

ADOPTION OF EMERGENCY AND TEMPORARY RULES TO IMPLEMENT THE AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT
(G.S. 150B-21.1B)

- Temporary Rule expires on the earliest of the following dates:
- (1) The date specified in the rules.
 - (2) The effective date of a permanent rule adopted in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.2 to replace the temporary rule.
 - (3) June 30, 2012.

